

Please do not change the current law. We are sick of being bothered by unwanted phone calls. We thank God for caller ID which helps. We never answer an unlisted, unavailable or hidden number. But a lot of people especially our elder family do not have caller ID. and answer these crank calls and get upset or rooked into buying something they don't want or need.